

LOKALKOLORIT
Renaud Regnery
Opening: JAN 17, 2020, 6 - 9 pm
JAN 17 - FEB 29, 2020
@ Klemm's, Berlin

Personification / sentiments of escalation / digital congruence / gestural marks / direct assimilation / painterly arrangement / social scales / relative discombobulation / perpetual patterns / commercial materials / fragmenting and transforming / imitating / polarities / decorative fashion / meshing into perspective / aging and adapting / diminishing / material world / abstract / decisions / universal paradox / center of time and material / unflattering surfaces / historical shifts / structural withdrawn / mundane methods / wonders / welcoming / immersive space / cathartic experience / re-centering / substance / translating / landscape of tension / distasteful wallpapers / striking colors / stimulating conscious / collective interpretation / activating paint

Renaud Regnery (b. 1975 in Epinal, FR), lives and works in Berlin. He holds a BFA from the Ecole des Beaux Arts de Paris and a MFA from the Academy of Fine Arts in Dresden (HfBK). In 2019, Regnery was awarded the prestigious Pollock-Krasner Foundation grant. Recent exhibitions include LOCKVOGEL, Kunstverein Oldenburg, Oldenburg, DE (s); Intoto #7, Kunstverein am Rosa Luxemburg Platz, Berlin, DE; Trust Your Brush, Towards Gallery, Toronto, CA; Interior and Collectors @Floating Worlds - 14th Biennale de Lyon, FR. Regnery will present his first monograph at KLEMM'S in February 2020.